To be a qawwal is more than being a performer, more than being an artist. One must be willing to release one's mind and soul from one's body to achieve ecstasy through music. Qawwali is enlightenment itself.

Reply to – The number 1729 is 'dull':
No, it is a very interesting number; it is the smallest number expressible as a sum of two cubes in two different ways, the two ways being $1^3 + 12^3$ and $9^3 + 10^3$.

BECAME RULER OF TENOCHTITLAN
HUEY TLATOANI OR GREAT SPEAKER
He ruled over the Aztec Empire until 1520, when Spanish Conquistadors led by Hernan Cortes conquered it.
"The Great [Moctezuma] was about forty years old, of good height, well proportioned, spare and slight, and not very dark, though of the usual Indian complexion. He did not wear his hair long but just over his ears, and he had a short black beard, well-shaped and thin. His face was rather long and cheerful, he had fine eyes, and in his appearance and manner could express geniality or, when necessary, a serious composure."

QUOTES

OF

GOATs

“ Mahatma Gandhi ”

1. “Be the change that you wish to see in the world.”
2. “The future depends on what you do today.”
3. “In a gentle way, you can shake the world.”
4. “Happiness is when what you think, what you say, and what you do are in harmony.”
5. “The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others.”
6. “An eye for an eye only ends up making the whole world blind.”
7. “Live as if you were to die tomorrow; learn as if you were to live forever.”
8. “First, they ignore you, then they laugh at you, then they fight you, then you win.”
9. “The weak can never forgive. Forgiveness is the attribute of the strong.”
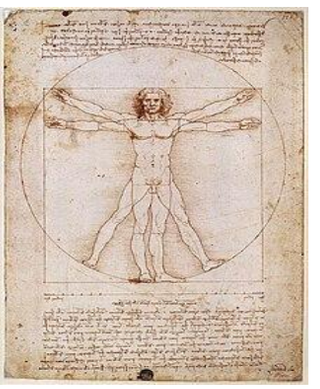
10. “An eye for an eye will only make the whole world blind.”

“ Leonardo da Vinci ”



Let no man who is not a Mathematician read the elements of my work.

1. “Learning never exhausts the mind.”

2. “Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication.”

3. “Time stays long enough for anyone who will use it.”

4. “I love those who can smile in trouble, who can gather strength from distress, and grow brave by reflection. ‘Tis the business of little minds to shrink, but they whose heart is firm, and whose conscience approves their conduct, will pursue their principles unto death.”

5. “Poor is the pupil who does not surpass his master.”

6. “It had long since come to my attention that people of accomplishment rarely sat back and let things happen to them. They went out and happened to things.”

7. “I have been impressed with the urgency of doing. Knowing is not enough; we must apply. Being willing is not enough; we must do.”

8. “The noblest pleasure is the joy of understanding.”

9. “Experience never errs; it is only your judgments that err by promising themselves effects such as are not caused by your experiments.”

10. “All our knowledge has its origins in our perceptions.”

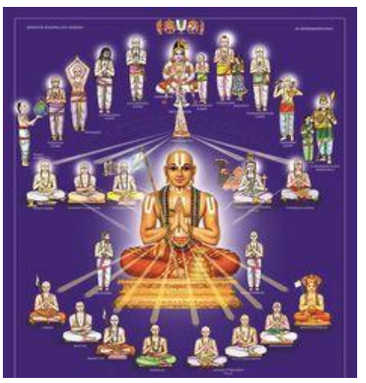
Sri Ramanujar



1. Unless you dedicate yourself to the service of God and His devotees, you will not be saved, however wise you may be.
2. The root 'dih' means 'to grow.' Hence these bodies (Dehas) are characterized by complexity. They have an end – their nature is perishability.
3. Self is eternal, for
   (1) It is not a complex being of a single form;
   (2) It is the knowing subject; and
   (3) It pervades all.

4. Devotion and absolute self-surrender are the happiest and best means to reach God.

5. On the contrary, the body is perishable, because
(1) it is complex;
(2) it serves the purpose of experiencing the fruits of Karma by the embodied self;
(3) it has a plurality of parts and
(4) it can be pervaded.

Therefore, as the body is by nature perishable and the self by nature is eternal, both are not objects fit for grief.

“Winston Churchill”

The Prime Minister visiting blitzed areas of London’s East End, 8 September 1940.

1. "If you are going through hell, keep going."

2. "Never, never, never give up."

3. "Time and money are largely interchangeable terms."

4. "Personally, I'm always ready to learn, although I do not always like being taught."

5. "Vengeance is the costliest and dissipating of luxuries."

6. "Harsh laws are at times better than no laws at all."

7. "Everyone has his day, and some days last longer than others."

8. "Success is not final, failure is not fatal, it is the courage to continue that counts."

9. "It is not in our power to anticipate our destiny."

10. "All the greatest things are simple, and many can be expressed in a single word: freedom; justice; honor; duty; mercy; hope."

Gmal Abdel Nasser

1. Egypt is not a country we live in but a country that lives within us.
2. The only type of nationalism that has ever worked is one that seeks to unite, not divide.
3. Our revolution is not just a change in government, but a change in the hearts of our people.
4. A true leader is one who is willing to sacrifice their own ambitions for the greater good of their people.
5. There is no longer a way out of our present situation except by forging a road toward our objective, violently and by force, over a sea of blood and under a horizon blazing with fire.
6. The most dangerous weapon in the hands of an oppressor is the silence of the oppressed.
7. We must invest in our human capital, for it is the foundation of our nation's prosperity.
8. Our strength is not in our military might, but in our ability to build alliances and foster peace.
9. We must learn to embrace change, for progress is impossible without it.
10. The genius of you Americans is that you never make clear-cut stupid moves, only complicated stupid moves which make the rest of us wonder at the possibility that we might be missing something.

Genghis Khan

1. “I am the punishment of God...If you had not committed great sins, God would not have sent a punishment like me upon you.”
2. “It is not sufficient that I succeed - all others must fail.”
3. “The greatest happiness is to scatter your enemy, to drive him before you, to see his cities reduced to ashes, to see those who love him shrouded in tears, and to gather into your bosom his wives and daughters.”
4. If you're afraid - don't do it, - if you're doing it - don't be afraid!
5. An action committed in anger is an action doomed to failure.
6. Conquering the world on horseback is easy; it is dismounting and governing that is hard.
7. If unable to abstain from drinking, a man may get drunk three times a month; if he does it more than three times he is culpable; if he gets drunk twice a month it is better; if once a month, this is still more laudable; and if one does not drink at all what can be better? But where can I find such a man? If such a man were found he would be worthy of the highest esteem.
8. One arrow alone can be easily broken but many arrows are indestructible.
9. A man's greatest joy is crushing his enemies.
10. A leader can never be happy until his people are happy.

Confucious

1. It does not matter how slowly you go as long as you do not stop.
2. I hear and I forget. I see and I remember. I do and I understand.
3. Only the wisest and stupidest of men never change.
4. When it is obvious that the goals cannot be reached, don't adjust the goals; adjust the action steps.
5. Before you embark on a journey of revenge, dig two graves.
6. The will to win, the desire to succeed, the urge to reach your full potential... These are the keys that will unlock the door to personal excellence.
7. If I am walking with two other men, each of them will serve as my teacher. I will pick out the good points of the one and imitate them, and the bad points of the other and correct them in myself.
8. To practice five things under all circumstances constitutes perfect virtue; these five are gravity, generosity of soul, sincerity, earnestness, and kindness.
9. First there must be order and harmony within your own mind. Then this order will spread to your family, then to the community, and finally to your entire kingdom. Only then can you have peace and harmony.
10. By three methods we may learn wisdom: First, by reflection, which is noblest; Second, by imitation, which is easiest; and third by experience, which is the bitterest.

1. Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that.
2. Make a career of humanity. Commit yourself to the noble struggle for equal rights. You will make a better person of yourself, a greater nation of your country, and a finer world to live in.
3. I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final word in reality. This is why right, temporarily defeated, is stronger than evil triumphant.
4. I have the audacity to believe that peoples everywhere can have three meals a day for their bodies, education and culture for their minds, and dignity, equality, and freedom for their spirits.
5. It is not enough to say 'We must not wage war.' It is necessary to love peace and sacrifice for it. We must concentrate not merely on the negative expulsion of war, but the positive affirmation of peace.
6. True peace is not merely the absence of tension; it is the presence of justice.
7. Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?
8. We may have all come on different ships, but we're in the same boat now.
9. Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into friend.
10. The time is always right to do what is right.

Muammar Gaddafi

1. I am an international leader, the dean of the Arab rulers, the king of kings of Africa and the imam of Muslims, and my international status does not allow me to descend to a lower level.
2. There is a conspiracy to control Libyan oil and to control Libyan land, to colonise Libya once again. This is impossible, impossible. We will fight until the last man and last woman to defend Libya from east to west, north to south.
3. How can the Security Council issue resolutions based on reports from news agencies?.
4. Revolution is when the masses make the revolution. A people's revolution.
5. Mandatory education is a coercive education that suppresses freedom. To impose specific teaching materials is a dictatorial act.
6. America is practicing all kinds of terrorism against Libya. Even the accusation that we are involved in terrorism is in itself an act of terrorism.
7. We are against the manufacture and acquisition of nuclear weapons. This is in line with our definition of - and opposition to – terrorism.
8. Africa is closer to me in every way than Iraq or Syria.
9. Resistance is not terrorism.
10. If they want peace, we will give them peace. But if they want war, we will give them a war they will never forget.

“ Napolean Boneparte ”

1. Death is nothing, but to live defeated and inglorious is to die daily.
2. A leader is a dealer in hope.
3. There are but two powers in the world, the sword and the mind. In the long run the sword is always beaten by the mind.
4. The people to fear are not those who disagree with you, but those who disagree with you and are too cowardly to let you know.
5. The true policy of a government is to make use a aristocracy, but under the forms and in the spirit of democracy.
6. Religion is excellent stuff for keeping common people quiet.
7. Never interrupt your enemy when he is making a mistake.
8. The reason most people fail instead of succeed is they trade what they want most for what they want at the moment.
9. If you build an army of 100 lions and their leader is a dog, in any fight, the lions will die like a dog. But if you build an army of 100 dogs and their leader is a lion, all dogs will fight as a lion.
10. Impossible is the word found only in a fool's dictionary. Wise people create opportunities for themselves and make everything possible.

Nelson Mandela

1. Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.
2. Overcoming poverty is not a task of charity, it is an act of justice.
3. What counts in life is not the mere fact that we have lived. It is what difference we have made to the lives of others.
4. I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear.
5. As I have said, the first thing is to be honest with yourself. You can never have an impact on society if you have not changed yourself.
6. I hate race discrimination most intensely and in all its manifestations. I have fought it all during my life; I fight it now and will do so until the end of my days.
7. There is a universal respect and even admiration for those who are humble and simple by nature, and who have absolute confidence in all human beings irrespective of their social status.
8. A nation should not be judged by how it treats its highest citizens, but its lowest ones.
9. Freedom is indivisible; the chains on any one of my people were the chains on all of them, the chains on all of my people were the chains on me.
10. Live life as though nobody is watching, and express yourself as though everyone is listening.

“Abraham Lincoln”

1. Sir, my concern is not whether God is on our side; my greatest concern is to be on God's side, for God is always right.
2. I want in all cases to do right, and most particularly so, in all cases with women.
3. Every man is said to have his peculiar ambition. Whether it be true or not, I can say for one that I have no other so great as that of being truly esteemed of my fellow men, by rendering myself worthy of their esteem. How far I shall succeed in gratifying this ambition, is yet to be developed.
4. The struggle of today, is not altogether for today – it is for a vast future also.
5. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.
6. There is more involved in this contest than is realized by eery one. There is involved in this struggle the question whether your children and my children shall enjoy the privileges we have enjoyed.
7. You can fool all the people some of the time, and some of the people all the time, but you cannot fool all the people all the time.
8. No man has a good enough memory to be a successful liar.
9. A house divided against itself cannot stand.
10. Better to remain silent and be thought a fool than to speak out and remove all doubt.

Henry Ford

1. Failure is simply the opportunity to begin again, this time more intelligently.
2. Nothing can be made except by makers, nothing can be managed except by managers. Money cannot make anything and money cannot manage anything.
3. The gifted man bears his gifts into the world, not for his own benefit, but for the people among whom he is placed; for the gifts are not his, he himself is a gift to the community.
4. Be ready to revise any system, scrap any method, abandon any theory, if the success of the job requires it.
5. The competitor to be feared is one who never bothers about you at all but goes on making his own business better all the time.
6. To do more for the world than the world does for you – that is success.
7. When everything seems to be going against you, remember that the airplane takes off against the wind, not with it.
8. If money is your hope for independence, you will never, have it. The only real security that a man will have in this world is a reserve of knowledge, experience, and ability.
9. The only real mistake is the one from which we learn nothing.
10. One of the greatest discoveries a man makes, one of his great surprises, is to find he can do what he was afraid he couldn't do.

Fidel Castro

2. North Americans don't understand . . . that our country is not just Cuba; our country is also humanity.
3. A revolution is a struggle to the death between the future and the past.
4. The equal right of all citizens to health, education, work, food, security, culture, science, and wellbeing - that is, the same rights we proclaimed when we began our struggle, in addition to those which emerge from our dreams of justice and equality for all inhabitants of our world - is what I wish for all.
5. The revolution is a dictatorship of the exploited against the exploiters.
6. Men do not shape destiny; Destiny produces the man for the hour.
7. I am not interested in power nor do I envisage assuming it at any time. All that I will do is to make sure that the sacrifices of so many compatriots should not be in vain, whatever the future may hold in store for me.
8. We will win this battle for life, and not only for your lives, but also for the lives of all children in the world.
9. They talk about the failure of socialism but where is the success of capitalism in Africa, Asia and Latin America?
10. NATO's brutal military alliance has become the most perfidious instrument of repression known in the history of humankind.

“ Benjamin Franklin ”

1. Well done is better than well said.
2. Search others for their virtues, thy self for thy vices.
3. Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning.
4. Happiness depends more on the inward disposition of mind than on outward circumstances.
5. By failing to prepare, you are preparing to fail.
6. Where there's Marriage without Love, there will be Love without Marriage.
7. Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety.
8. Remember that time is money.
9. If you would not be forgotten as soon as you are dead, either write something worth reading or do things worth writing.
10. Happiness depends more on the inward disposition of mind than on outward circumstances.

“Bertrand Russell”

1. The whole problem with the world is that fools and fanatics are always so certain of themselves, and wiser people so full of doubts.
2. It has been said that man is a rational animal. All my life I have been searching for evidence which could support this.
3. A happy life must be to a great extent a quiet life, for it is only in an atmosphere of quiet that true joy dare live.
4. The megalomaniac differs from the narcissist by the fact that he wishes to be powerful rather than charming, and seeks to be feared rather than loved. To this type belong many lunatics and most of the great men of history.
5. Those who have never known the deep intimacy and the intense companionship of mutual love have missed the best thing that life has to give.
6. Men are born ignorant, not stupid. They are made stupid by education.
7. The time you enjoy wasting is not wasted time.
8. Fear is the main source of superstition, and one of the main sources of cruelty. To conquer fear is the beginning of wisdom.
9. To understand the actual world as it is, not as we should wish it to be, is the beginning of wisdom.
10. War doesn't determine who's right, it determines who's left.

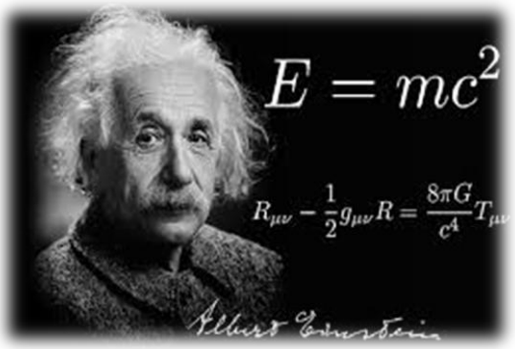
Albert Einstein



1. We cannot solve our problems with the same thinking we used when we created them.
2. The world is a dangerous place to live; not because of the people who are evil, but because of the people who don't do anything about it.
3. Any man who can drive safely while kissing a pretty girl is simply not giving the kiss the attention it deserves.
4. The most beautiful experience we can have been the mysterious. It is the fundamental emotion that stands at the cradle of true art and true science.
5. Whoever is careless with the truth in small matters cannot be trusted with important matters.
6. Try not to become a man of success, but rather try to become a man of value.
7. Imagination is more important than knowledge. For knowledge is limited, whereas imagination embraces the entire world, stimulating progress, giving birth to evolution.
8. The important thing is not to stop questioning. Curiosity has its own reason for existing.
9. A person who never made a mistake never tried anything new.
10. The only source of knowledge is experience.

Adolf Hitler

1. The leader of genius must have the ability to make different opponents appear as if they belonged to one category.
2. Universal education is the most corroding and disintegrating poison that liberalism has ever invented for its own destruction.
3. Those who want to live, let them fight, and those who do not want to fight in this world of eternal struggle do not deserve to live.
4. All propaganda has to be popular and has to accommodate itself to the comprehension of the least intelligent of those whom it seeks to reach.
5. Nature is cruel, so we may be cruel too.
6. In the end, the greatest treasure of a nation is a strong leader ready to fight at every difficulty.
7. The art of leadership... consists in consolidating the attention of the people against a single adversary and taking care that nothing will split up that attention.
8. Through clever and constant application of propaganda, people can be made to see paradise as hell, and also the other way round, to consider the most wretched sort of life as paradise.
9. Germany will either be a world power or will not be at all.
10. Mankind has grown strong in eternal struggles and it will only perish through eternal peace.

7. Lawyers have to make a living, and can only do so by inducing people to believe that a straight line is crooked.
8. I would not leave anything to a man of action; as he would be tempted to give up work. On the other hand I would like to help dreamers as they find it difficult to get on in life.
9. Perhaps my dynamite plants will put an end to war sooner than your [pacifist] congresses. On the day two army corps can annihilate each other in one second all civilized nations will recoil from war in horror.
10. Lying is the greatest of all sins.

Simon Boliver

1. An ignorant people are the blind instrument of its own destruction.
2. Nations will march towards the apex of their greatness at the same pace as their education. Nations will soar if their education soars; they will regress if it regresses. Nations will fall and sink in darkness if education is corrupted or completely abandoned.
3. To do something right it must be done twice. The first time instructs the second.
4. It is harder to maintain the balance of freedom than it is to endure the weight of tyranny.
5. The United States appear to be destined by Providence to plague America with misery in the name of liberty.
6. The art of victory is learned in defeat.
7. Flee the country where a lone man holds all power: It is a nation of slaves.
8. Judgement comes from experience, and experience comes from bad judgement.
9. Do not compare your material forces with those of the enemy. Spirit cannot be compared with matter. You are human beings, they are beasts. You are free, they are slaves.
10. A state too expensive in itself, or by virtue of its dependencies, ultimately falls into decay; its free government is transformed into a tyranny; it disregards the principles which it should preserve, and finally degenerates into despotism. The distinguishing characteristic of small republics is stability: the character of large republics is mutability.

5. There are those who reason well, but they are greatly outnumbered by those who reason badly.
6. The Milky Way is nothing else but a mass of innumerable stars planted together in clusters.
7. You can't teach anybody anything, only make them realize the answers are already inside them.
8. Two truths cannot contradict one another.
9. Measure what can be measured, and make measurable what cannot be measured.
10. The greatest wisdom is to get to know oneself.

Chanakya

1. Books are as useful to a stupid person as a mirror is useful to a blind person.
2. The biggest guru-mantra is: never share your secrets with anybody. It will destroy you.
3. Once you start a working on something, don't be afraid of failure and don't abandon it. People who work sincerely are the happiest.
4. A good wife is one who serves her husband in the morning like a mother does, loves him in the day like a sister does and pleases him like a prostitute in the night.
5. Education is the best friend. An educated person is respected everywhere. Education beats the beauty and the youth.
6. Even if a snake is not poisonous, it should pretend to be venomous.
7. Before you start some work, always ask yourself three questions - Why am I doing it, What the results might be and Will I be successful. Only when you think deeply and find satisfactory answers to these questions, go ahead.
8. Treat your kid like a darling for the first five years. For the next five years, scold them. By the time they turn sixteen, treat them like a friend. Your grown-up children are your best friends.
9. A man is born alone and dies alone; and he experiences the good and bad consequences of his karma alone; and he goes alone to hell or the Supreme abode.
10. O wise man! Give your wealth only to the worthy and never to others. The water of the sea received by the clouds is always sweet.

Socrates

1. I am the wisest man alive, for I know one thing, and that is that I know nothing.
2. The greatest way to live with honour in this world is to be what we pretend to be.
3. The secret of happiness, you see, is not found in seeking more, but in developing the capacity to enjoy less.
4. The secret of change is to focus all of your energy, not on fighting the old, but on building the new.
5. A system of morality which is based on relative emotional values is a mere illusion, a thoroughly vulgar conception which has nothing sound in it and nothing true.
6. I am not an Athenian, nor a Greek, but a citizen of the world.
7. One who is injured ought not to return the injury, for on no account can it be right to do an injustice; and it is not right to return an injury, or to do evil to any man, however much we have suffered from him.
8. By all means marry; if you get a good wife, you'll become happy; if you get a bad one, you'll become a philosopher.
9. True wisdom comes to each of us when we realize how little we understand about life, ourselves, and the world around us.
10. To fear death, gentlemen, is no other than to think oneself wise when one is not, to think one knows what one does not know. No one knows whether death may not be the greatest of all blessings for a man, yet men fear it as if they knew that it is the greatest of evils.

Leo Tolstoy

1. An arrogant person considers himself perfect. This is the chief harm of arrogance. It interferes with a person's main task in life - becoming a better person.
2. I sit on a man's back, choking him and making him carry me, and yet assure myself and others that I am very sorry for him and wish to ease his lot by all possible means - except by getting off his back.
3. One of the first conditions of happiness is that the link between Man and Nature shall not be broken.
4. The changes in our life must come from the impossibility to live otherwise than according to the demands of our conscience not from our mental resolution to try a new form of life.
5. The law condemns and punishes only actions within certain definite and narrow limits; it thereby justifies, in a way, all similar actions that lie outside those limits.
6. Our body is a machine for living. It is organized for that; it is its nature. Let life go on in it unhindered and let it defend itself.
7. Great works of art are only great because they are accessible and comprehensible to everyone.
8. Historians are like deaf people who go on answering questions that no one has asked them.
9. Pure and complete sorrow is as impossible as pure and complete joy.
10. A man is like a fraction whose numerator is what he is and whose denominator is what he thinks of himself. The larger the denominator, the smaller the fraction.

“Queen Victoria”

1. We are not interested in the possibilities of defeat. They do not exist.
2. The Queen is most anxious to enlist everyone in checking this mad, wicked folly of 'Women's Rights'. It is a subject which makes the Queen so furious that she cannot contain herself.
3. When I think of a merry, happy, free young girl - and look at the ailing, aching state a young wife generally is doomed to - which you can't deny is the penalty of marriage.
4. We poor creatures are born for man's pleasure and amusement, and destined to go through endless sufferings and trials.
5. It's not what they think of me that matters - but what I think of them.
6. Beware of artists, they mix with all classes of society and are therefore most dangerous.
7. Since it has pleased Providence to place me in this station, I shall do my utmost to fulfil my duty towards my country; I am very young and perhaps in many, though not in all things, inexperienced, but I am sure that very few have more real good will and more real desire to do what is fit and right than I have.
8. You will find as the children grow up that as a rule children are a bitter disappointment – their greatest object being to do precisely what their parents do not wish and have anxiously tried to prevent.
9. My beloved Albert, you are my strength and my truest companion.
10. I will not be limited by gender stereotypes; I will shatter those glass ceilings with my every action.

“ Alexander the Great ”

1. I am not afraid of an army of lions led by a sheep; I am afraid of an army of sheep led by a lion.
2. I am indebted to my father for living, but to my teacher for living well.
3. Through every generation of the human race there has been a constant war, a war with fear. Those who have the courage to conquer it are made free and those who are conquered by it are made to suffer until they have the courage to defeat it, or death takes them.
4. There are so many worlds, and I have not yet conquered even one.
5. Without Knowledge, Skill cannot be focused. Without Skill, Strength cannot be brought to bear and without Strength, Knowledge may not be applied.
6. Greatness is not achieved through comfort and complacency, but through overcoming challenges and pushing one’s limits.
7. His last words when asked when he wished divine honours should be paid to him: “When you yourselves are happy.
8. When you bury my body, don’t build any momentum and keep my hands outside so that the world knows that the person who won the whole world had nothing in his hand while dying.
9. So far as I am concerned, I could not be accused of having set eyes, or having wished to set eyes, upon Darius' wife: on the contrary, I have refused even to listen to those who spoke to me of her beauty.
10. I would rather live a short life of glory than a long one of obscurity.

“ George Washington ”

1. My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her.
2. I hold the maxim no less applicable to public than to private affairs, that honesty is the best policy.
3. I had always hoped that this land might become a safe & agreeable Asylum to the virtuous & persecuted part of mankind, to whatever nation they might belong.
4. If the freedom of speech is taken away then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter.
5. Be courteous to all, but intimate with few, and let those few be well tried before you give them your confidence.
6. Religion is as necessary to reason as reason is to religion. The one cannot exist without the other. A reasoning being would lose his reason, in attempting to account for the great phenomena of nature, had he not a Supreme Being to refer to; and well has it been said, that if there had been no God, mankind would have been obliged to imagine one.
7. Someday, following the example of the United States of America, there will be a United States of Europe.
8. Happiness and moral duty are inseparably connected.
9. It is better to offer no excuse than a bad one.
10. Perseverance and spirit have done wonders in all ages.

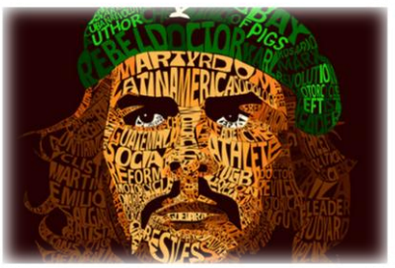
Che Guevara



1. The true revolutionary is guided by a great feeling of love. It is impossible to think of a genuine revolutionary lacking this quality.
2. At the risk of seeming ridiculous, let me say that the true revolutionary is guided by a great feeling of love. It is impossible to think of a genuine revolutionary lacking this quality.
3. And then many things became very clear... we learned perfectly that the life of a single human being is worth millions of times more than all the property of the richest man on earth.
4. There is no other definition of socialism valid for us than that of the abolition of the exploitation of man by man.
5. The revolution is made through human beings, but individuals must forge their revolutionary spirit day by day.
6. Above all, always be capable of feeling deeply any injustice committed against anyone, anywhere in the world. This is the most beautiful quality in a revolutionary.
7. It is unnecessary to say that Fidel Castro possesses the high qualities of a fighter and statesman: our path, our struggle, and our triumph we owed to his vision.
8. [on women fighters] In the tough life of the fighter, a woman is a comrade who brings the qualities peculiar to her gender but with the ability to work just as hard as a man. She can fight, she is weaker, but no less resistant than a man.
9. [in 1961, on the Cuban revolution] We are face to face with history and quite simply we must not be afraid! We must maintain the same enthusiasm and faith that we have up to now.
10. The only true freedom is the freedom to fight for what is right.

“ Michelangelo ”

1. The greater danger for most of us lies not in setting our aim too high and falling short; but in setting our aim too low, and achieving our mark.
2. If we have been pleased with life, we should not be displeased with death, since it comes from the hand of the same master.
3. Every beauty which is seen here by persons of perception resembles more than anything else that celestial source from which we all are come.
4. Faith in oneself is the best and safest course.
5. There is no greater harm than that of time wasted.
6. Many believe - and I believe - that I have been designated for this work by God. In spite of my old age, I do not want to give it up; I work out of love for God and I put all my hope in Him.
7. It is necessary to keep one's compass in one's eyes and not in the hand, for the hands execute, but the eye judges.
8. Your gifts lie in the place where your values, passions and strengths meet. Discovering that place is the first step toward sculpting your masterpiece, Your Life.
9. I created a vision of David in my mind and simply carved away everything that was not David.
10. “Our thoughts and imagination are the only real limits to our possibilities.

“ Marie Curie ”

1. Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more so that we may fear less.
2. Life is not easy for any of us. But what of that? We must have perseverance and above all confidence in ourselves. We must believe that we are gifted for something and that this thing must be attained.
3. First Principle: never to let one's self be beaten down by persons or events.
4. One never notices what has been done; one can only see what remains to be done.
5. I was taught that the way of progress is neither swift nor easy.
6. I am one of those who think, like Nobel, that humanity will draw better than evil from new discoveries.
7. I am among those who think that science has great beauty.
8. There are sadistic scientists who hurry to hunt down errors instead of establishing the truth.
9. You cannot hope to build a better world without improving the individuals. To that end each of us must work for his own improvement, and at the same time share a general responsibility for all humanity, our particular duty being to aid those to whom we think we can be most useful.
10. Each of us must work for his own improvement, and at the same time share a general responsibility for all humanity.

“ Florence Nightingale ”

1. I attribute my success to this – I never gave or took any excuse.
2. Rather, ten times, die in the surf, heralding the way to a new world, than stand idly on the shore.
3. The world is put back by the death of everyone who has to sacrifice the development of his or her peculiar gifts to conventionality.
4. I am of certain convinced that the greatest heroes are those who do their duty in the daily grind of domestic affairs whilst the world whirls as a maddening dreidel.
5. No man, not even a doctor, ever gives any other definition of what a nurse should be than this – 'devoted and obedient.
6. It is often thought that medicine is the curative process. It is no such thing; medicine is the surgery of functions, as surgery proper is that of limbs and organs. Neither can do anything but remove obstructions; neither can cure; nature alone cures. Surgery removes the bullet out of the limb, which is an obstruction to cure, but nature heals the wound. So it is with medicine; the function of an organ becomes obstructed; medicine, so far as we know, assists nature to remove the obstruction, but does nothing more. And what nursing has to do in either case, is to put the patient in the best condition for nature to act upon him.
7. The very first requirement in a hospital is that it should do the sick no harm.
8. For the sick it is important to have the best.
9. Wise and humane management of the patient is the best safeguard against infection.
10. If a patient is cold, if a patient is feverish, if a patient is faint, if he is sick after taking food, if he has a bed-sore, it is generally the fault not of the disease, but of the nursing.

“Captain James Cook”

1. Ambition leads me not only farther than any other man has been before me, but as far as I think it possible for man to go.
2. Remember, the greater the opportunity, the fewer are those who see it.
3. The possession of knowledge, unless accompanied by a manifestation and expression in action, is like a hoard of treasure hidden underground, of no use to anyone.
4. Better to have something to say than to have to say something.
5. To be a good manager of people requires both fairness and bluntness.
6. When your mind tries to verify a preconceived notion you can miss the obvious.
7. If the definition of insanity is doing the same thing over and over again expecting different results, then liberalism is a form of insanity.
8. We must judge men, not by their opinions, but by what their opinions lead them to do.
9. The capacity of man himself is only revealed when, under stress and responsibility, he breaks through his educational shell, and he may then be a splendid surprise to himself no less than to this teachers.
10. No man ever reached to excellence in any one art or profession without having passed through the slow and painful process of study and preparation.

“Emperor Menelik II”

1. Ethiopia has been for 14 centuries a Christian island in a sea of pagans – European powers. This country is mine and no other nation can have it.
2. God, in his bounty, has struck down my enemies and enlarged my empire and preserved me to this day.
3. I have no intention of being an indifferent looker-on if the distant Powers have the idea of dividing up Africa, for Ethiopia has been for more than fourteen centuries an island of Christians in the middle of the sea of pagans.
4. Plant the Ethiopian flag and make the inhabitants submit in all the country as far as the White Nile.
5. The emperor has the option to communicate with the help of the Italian government for all matters that he wants with the kings of Europe.
6. There is a striking similarity of speech between Menelik and the monarchs of Europe with respect to his Divine right of rule and dependence on God.
7. Under Menelik, Ethiopia expanded its empire greatly while the Europeans were carving up other parts of Africa.
8. Ethiopia, then the only Christian country in Africa, was imperialistic and interested in private military adventurers to expand their empire just as the English, French, Belgians and Germans were.
9. The basic treaty sold some of Ethiopia’s colonial territory (Eritrea and Tigray) to Italy in exchange for arms. Italy had tried to conquer the area but lost 500 men in the Battle of Dogali.
10. Ethiopia, in contrast to the rest of Africa, was a Christian kingdom and had been so for centuries.

1. Pessimism is a luxury that a Jew can never allow himself"
2. Those who don't know how to weep with their whole heart, don't know how to laugh either.
3. The Soviet government is the most realistic regime in the world - no ideals.
4. If we have to have a choice between dead and pitied, and being alive with a bad image, we'd rather be alive and have the bad image.
5. Trust yourself. Create the kind of self that you will be happy to live with all your life. Make the most of yourself by fanning the tiny, inner sparks of possibility into flames of achievement.
6. Whether women are better than men I cannot say - but I can say they are certainly no worse.
7. Let me tell you something that we Israelis have against Moses. He took us 40 years through the desert in order to bring us to the one spot in the Middle East that has no oil!
8. I can honestly say that I was never affected by the question of the success of an undertaking. If I felt it was the right thing to do, I was for it regardless of the possible outcome.
9. We can forgive the Arabs for killing our children. We cannot forgive them for forcing us to kill their children. We will only have peace with the Arabs when they love their children more than they hate us.
10. It is true we have won all our wars, but we have paid for them. We don't want victories anymore.

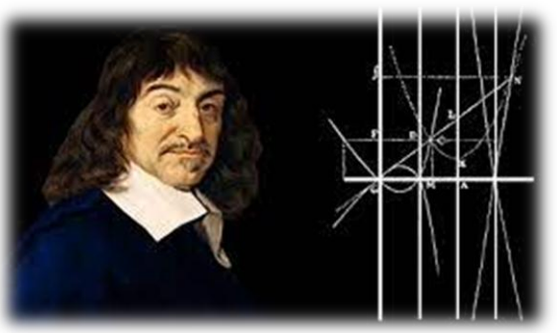
Joseph Stalin

1. It is enough that the people know there was an election. The people who cast the votes decide nothing. The people who count the votes decide everything.
2. In the Soviet army it takes more courage to retreat than advance.
3. Ideas are more powerful than guns. We would not let our enemies have guns, why should we let them have ideas.
4. To choose one's attitude in any given set of circumstances is to take responsibility.
5. The press must grow day in and day out — it is our Party's sharpest and most powerful weapon.
6. [T]o assert that we want to make a revolution in other countries, to interfere in their lives, means saying what is untrue, and what we have never advocated.
7. It is difficult for me to imagine what 'personal liberty' is enjoyed by an unemployed person who goes about hungry and cannot find employment.
8. If the opposition disarms, well and good. If it refuses to disarm, we shall disarm it ourselves.
9. A single death is a tragedy; a million deaths is a statistic.
10. Four hostile newspapers are more to be feared than a thousand bayonets.

“ Marlon Brando ”

1. Privacy is not something that I'm merely entitled to, it's an absolute prerequisite.
2. Most of the successful people in Hollywood are failures as human beings.
3. Do you spend time with your family? Good. Because a man that doesn't spend time with his family can never be a real man.
4. I've always found animals easy to love because their love is unconditional. They are trusting, loyal and undemanding except in wanting love in return.
5. Acting is the expression of a neurotic impulse. It's a bum's life. Quitting acting, that's the sign of maturity.
6. Never confuse the size of your pay check with the size of your talent.
7. We'd all like to be certain of what we know, but I think the most important question is to ask yourself do you really know what you know?
8. The caste system may be more highly developed in countries like India or England, but every tier of society in almost every culture tries to dominate a group it perceives as beneath it.
9. Most of my childhood memories of my father are of being ignored. I was his namesake, but nothing I did ever pleased or even interested him. He enjoyed telling me I couldn't do anything right.
10. If you want something from an audience, you give blood to their fantasies. It's the ultimate hustle.

“ René Descartes ”



1. Divide Each Difficulty into as Many Parts as Is Feasible and Necessary to Resolve it.
2. The Reading of All Good Books Is Like a Conversation with the Finest Minds of Past Centuries.
3. It Is Not Enough to Have a Good Mind; the Main Thing Is to Use It Well.
4. Common sense is the most widely shared commodity in the world, for every man is convinced that he is well supplied with it.
5. The greatest minds are capable of the greatest vices as well as of the greatest virtues.
6. To live without philosophizing is in truth the same as keeping the eyes closed without attempting to open them.
7. For I found myself embarrassed with so many doubts and errors that it seemed to me that the effort to instruct myself had no effect other than the increasing discovery of my own ignorance.
8. I hope that posterity will judge me kindly, not only as to the things which I have explained, but also to those which I have intentionally omitted so as to leave to others the pleasure of discovery.
9. If we possessed a thorough knowledge of all the parts of the seed of any animal (e.g. man), we could from that alone, be reasons entirely mathematical and certain, deduce the whole conformation and figure of each of its members, and, conversely if we knew several peculiarities of this conformation, we would from those deduce the nature of its seed.
10. If you would be a real seeker after truth, you must at least once in your life doubt, as far as possible, all things.

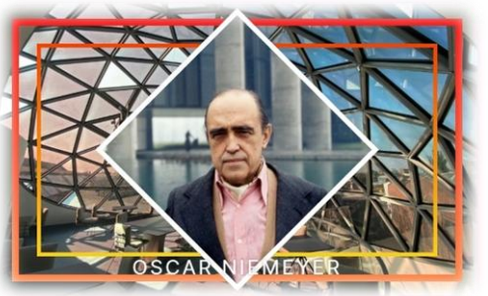
8. Have I neither friend nor foe?
9. She ought to be content with the insignia of wifehood" [about first wife Octavia]
10. It is now too late! Is this your fidelity? [His final words]

“ Oscar Niemeyer ”



1. I don’t like to talk about architecture. Life is too short for that, a breath, that’s all – it matters far more than buildings.
2. I had some good opportunities. I was lucky to have had the chance to do things differently. Architecture is about surprise.
3. It is not the right angle that attracts me, nor the straight line, hard and inflexible, created by man. What attracts me is the free and sensual curve - the curve that I find in the mountains of my country, in the sinuous course of its rivers, in the body of the beloved woman.
4. The architect's role is to fight for a better world, where he can produce an architecture that serves everyone and not just a group of privileged people.
5. When you have a large space to conquer, the curve is the natural solution.
6. I search for surprise in my architecture. A work of art should cause the emotion of newness.
7. My architecture is easy to understand. And enjoy. I hope it also is hard to forget.
8. I pick up my pen. It flows. A building appears. There it is. There is nothing more to say.
9. The artistic capability of reinforced concrete is so fantastic - that is the way to go.
10. We have to have dreams, even if they never come true.

Hage Geingob

1. Let me tell you here that as long as I am given the mandate to lead this great country, the freedom of the press is guaranteed.
2. The influence fathers have in the lives of their kids and on society at large is critical to addressing social ills.
3. Our national efforts should focus on fostering a culture of respect for human rights in the present day and in the future.
4. The burning desire to overcome the limitations that confine our people to poverty, inequality and undignified life, compelled us to formulate the HPP, as a tool to fast-track development and draw us closer to the attainment of our National Development Plans and Vision 2030.
5. We shall continue to support the AU reforms and the accomplishment of a peaceful and prosperous Africa.
6. Africa must maintain unity of purpose and move forward with a sense of urgency towards the upliftment of the African citizen, both materially and ideologically.
7. Patience is a virtue when you never walk alone.
8. I have often said that Namibia is a child of international solidarity, friend to all and enemy to none.
9. Tribalism, racism and regionalism do not have a place in any society and is a recipe for disaster.
10. Let us maintain the respect of human dignity and express compassion towards one another.

St. Tyagaraja

1. You create, protect and destroy many millions of Universes consisting of gross and subtle forms of brahmA, indra, celestials and asuras etc.
2. Assuming forms of Trinity – as vishNu, rudra etc. - You, as the Lord of Universe, always play a lot of wondrous Sports.
3. But, I am trusting You; I consider You to be my fortune.
4. You have desired to behold, to the satiation of your eyes, the Lord - the indweller of Agamas, the OverLord of Universe.
5. Can the taste of Your name be known to those who are devoid of love towards You?
6. Won't you kindly, inform this tyAgarAja, in detail, about the grandeur of your serving SrIrAma, by standing on His either side?
7. Focusing the eyes and half-closing, sitting without motion of eyes or body, holding a rosary, for all appearances wearing a garb of a yOgi but indeed a fake, they simply extolled Him not knowing the real location where there is no birth or death.
8. When there is the nice royal path called 'devotion to SrIrAma', why enter by lanes?
9. The state of mind of other women, on whom none has set eyes, is not known to others. Beholding Lord Siva, wives of Rshis of the dAruka forest, brought infamy, in this World, by exceeding the bounds.Therefore, there is no need to find fault with the virgins.
10. It is true that desired results would accrue, only if this tyAgarAja is endowed with, favourable fate andthe method with which the most eminent devotees like sage nArada, prahlAda, sage parASara, rAmadAsa and others, steadfastly remained devoted to the holy feet of SrIraghurAma.

“Thomas Alva Edison”

1. Genius is one percent inspiration and ninety-nine percent perspiration.
2. I have not failed. I've just found 10,000 ways that won't work.
3. Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.
4. The three great essentials to achieve anything worthwhile are, first, hard work; second, stick-to-itiveness; third, common sense.
5. Unfortunately, there seems to be far more opportunity out there than ability… We should remember that good fortune often happens when opportunity meets with preparation.
6. Being busy does not always mean real work. The object of all work is production or accomplishment and to either of these ends there must be forethought, system, planning, intelligence and honest purpose, as well as perspiration.
7. Personally, I enjoy working about 18 hours a day. Besides the short catnaps I take each day, I average about four to five hours of sleep per night.
8. I have more respect for the fellow with a single idea who gets there than for the fellow with a thousand ideas who does nothing.
9. The world owes nothing to any man, but every man owes something to the world.
10. When I have finally decided that a result is worth getting, I go ahead on it and make trial after trial until it comes.

“Johannes Gutenberg”

1. It is a press, certainly, but a press from which shall flow in inexhaustible streams Through it, God will spread His Word. A spring of truth shall flow from it: like a new star it shall scatter the darkness of ignorance, and cause a light heretofore unknown to shine amongst men.
2. Give me twenty-six soldiers of lead and I will conquer the world.
3. Religious truth is captive in a small number of manuscript books, which guard the common treasure, instead of diffusing it.
4. God suffers in the great multitudes whom his sacred word cannot reach.
5. Let us break the seal which seals up holy things and give wings to Truth in order that she may win every soul that comes into the world by her word no longer written at great expense by hands easily palsied, but multiplied like the wind by an untiring machine.
6. Religious truth is imprisoned in a small number of manuscript books, which confine instead of spread the public treasure.
7. What is truth? Truth is something so noble that if God could turn aside from it, I would keep the truth and turn aside from God.
8. In quietness are all things answered.
9. There it is again image. Once again. I get really tired of it. Quick.
10. Life is a series of puzzles. All you have to do is solve the puzzles.

“Alexandre Dumas”

1. All human wisdom is contained in these two words - Wait and Hope.
2. It's necessary to have wished for death in order to know how good it is to live.
3. When you compare the sorrows of real life to the pleasures of the imaginary one, you will never want to live again, only to dream forever.
4. As a general rule...people ask for advice only in order not to follow it; or if they do follow it, in order to have someone to blame for giving it.
5. It is almost as difficult to keep a first-class person in a fourth-class job, as it is to keep a fourth-class person in a first-class job.
6. There is neither happiness nor misery in the world; there is only the comparison of one state with another, nothing more. He who has felt the deepest grief is best able to experience supreme happiness.
7. There are two ways of seeing: with the body and with the soul. The body's sight can sometimes forget, but the soul remembers forever.
8. Life is a storm, my young friend. You will bask in the sunlight one moment, be shattered on the rocks the next. What makes you a man is what you do when that storm comes.
9. Learning does not make one learned: there are those who have knowledge and those who have understanding. The first requires memory and the second philosophy.
10. Pure love and suspicion cannot dwell together: at the door where the latter enters, the former makes its exit.

“Vladimir Lenin”

1. There are decades where nothing happens; and there are weeks where decades happen.
2. Despair is typical of those who do not understand the causes of evil, see no way out, and are incapable of struggle.
3. The oppressed are allowed once every few years to decide which particular representatives of the oppressing class are to represent and repress them in parliament.
4. The progressive historical role of capitalism may be summed up in two brief propositions: increase in the productive forces of social labour, and the socialisation of that labour. But both these facts manifest themselves in extremely diverse processes in different branches of the national economy.
5. Those who are really convinced that they have made progress in science would not demand freedom for the new views to continue side by side with the old, but the substitution of the new views for the old.
6. There are no morals in politics; there is only expedience. A scoundrel may be of use to us just because he is a scoundrel.
7. Without revolutionary theory there can be no revolutionary movement.
8. The way to crush the bourgeoisie is to grind them between the millstones of taxation and inflation.
9. The press should be not only a collective propagandist and a collective agitator, but also a collective organizer of the masses.
10. Give me just one generation of youth, and I'll transform the whole world.

“ Joan of Arc ”

1. Asked whether she knew she was in God’s grace, the saint answered: “If I am not, may God place me there; if I am, may God so keep me. I should be the saddest in all the world if I knew that I were not in the grace of God.
2. I do not know if I am in mortal sin, and, if it please God, I will never so be; I do not believe I have done its works; nor, please God, have I ever done or ever will do deeds which charge my soul!
3. Every man gives his life for what he believes. Every woman gives her life for what she believes. Sometimes people believe in little or nothing, nevertheless they give up their lives to that little or nothing.
4. It is better to be alone with God. His friendship will not fail me, nor His counsel, nor His love. In His strength, I will dare and dare and dare until I die.
5. I would rather die than do something which I know to be a sin, or to be against God's will.
6. I was admonished to adopt feminine clothes; I refused, and still refuse. As for other avocations of women, there are plenty of other women to perform them.
7. One life is all we have and we live it as we believe in living it. But to sacrifice what you are and to live without belief, that is a fate more terrible than dying.
8. Everything I have said or done is in the hands of God. I commit myself to Him! I certify to you that I would do or say nothing against the Christian faith.
9. Children say that people are hung sometimes for speaking the truth.
10. You say that you are my judge; I do not know if you are; but take good heed not to judge me ill, because you would put yourself in great peril.

“ Charles de Gaulle ”

1. How can you be expected to govern a country that has 246 kinds of cheese?
2. Patriotism is when love of your own people comes first; nationalism, when hate for people other than your own comes first.
3. A man of character finds a special attractiveness in difficulty, since it is only by coming to grips with difficulty that he can realize his potentialities.
4. Since a politician never believes what he says, he is surprised when others believe him.
5. When I am right, I get angry. Churchill gets angry when he is wrong. We are angry at each other much of the time.
6. I have tried to lift France out of the mud. But she will return to her errors and vomiting. I cannot prevent the French from being French.
7. You may be sure that the Americans will commit all the stupidities they can think of, plus some that are beyond imagination.
8. Nothing great will ever be achieved without great men, and men are great only if they are determined to be so.
9. The leader must aim high, see big, judge widely, thus setting himself apart from the ordinary people who debate in narrow confines.
10. A true leader always keeps an element of surprise up his sleeve, which others cannot grasp but which keeps his public excited and breathless.

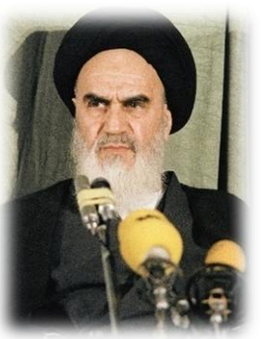
Ruhollah Khomeini



1. When anyone studies a little or pays a little attention to the rules of Islamic government, Islamic politics, Islamic society and Islamic economy he will realize that Islam is a very political religion. Anyone who will say that religion is separate from politics is a fool; he does not know Islam or politics.
2. We are not afraid of economic sanctions or military intervention. What we are afraid of is Western universities.
3. Islamic state means a state based on justice and democracy and structured upon Islamic rules and laws.
4. You young people yourselves are capable of performing anything. Our inventors can invent in a high level. Our innovators can innovate in a high level, only if they keep self-confidence and believe that we can.
5. Women are free in the Islamic Republic in the selection of their activities and their future and their clothing.
6. In the Islamic Republic the rights of the religious minorities are respectfully regarded.
7. Either we shake one another's hands in joy at the victory of Islam in the world, or all of us will turn to eternal life, and martyrdom. In both cases, victory and success are ours.
8. We must all rise, destroy Israel and replace it with the heroic Palestinian nation.
9. What country is stabler than Iran? Where else in the world would an assassinated prime minister be so quickly replaced?
10. In the world there is no democracy better than our democracy. Such a thing has never before been seen.

“ Verghese Kurien ”

1. If the situation demanded autocracy, I gave it autocracy.
2. I am one of those who firmly believe that our cities thrive at the expense of our villages; that our industries exploit agriculture.
3. I may be old-fashioned in my thinking but I have always believed that it is only when you get less than you are worth, that you can look for respect; if you are paid much more than you are worth you will get no respect.
4. The one thing that I have never had a complaint about is the amount of love and respect which my dairy farmers showered upon me.
5. I have often spoken of integrity as the most important of these values, realizing that integrity – and personal integrity, at that – is being honest to yourself. If you are always honest to yourself, it does not take much effort in always being honest with others.
6. …failure is not about not succeeding. Rather it is about not putting in your bet effort and not contributing, however modestly, to the common good.
7. Any sensible government must learn to unleash the energy of its people and get them to perform instead of trying to get a bureaucracy to perform.
8. India's place in the sun would come from the partnership between wisdom of its rural people and skill of its professionals.
9. the technical advice of ‘experts’ is all too often dictated by the economic interests of the advanced countries and not by the needs or ground realities in developing countries.
10. When you stand above the crowd, you must be ready to have stones thrown at you.

“Muhammad Ali Jinnah”

1. I do not believe in taking the right decision, I take a decision and make it right.
2. You will have to make up for the smallness of your size by your courage and selfless devotion to duty, for it is not life that matters, but the courage, fortitude and determination you bring to it.
3. There are two powers in the world; one is the sword and the other is the pen. There is a great competition and rivalry between the two. There is a third power stronger than both, that of the women.
4. Failure is a word unknown to me. No struggle can ever succeed without women participating side by side with men.
5. If you will work in co-operation, forgetting the past, burying the hatchet, you are bound to succeed.
6. What I am afraid of is... Gandhi. He has brains and always tried to put me in the wrong. I have to be on guard and alert all the time.
7. Our object should be peace within, and peace without. We want to live peacefully and maintain cordial friendly relations with our immediate neighbours and with the world at large.
8. Expect the best, Prepare for the worst.
9. With faith, discipline and selfless devotion to duty, there is nothing worthwhile that you cannot achieve.
10. With faith, discipline and selfless devotion to duty, there is nothing worthwhile that you cannot achieve.

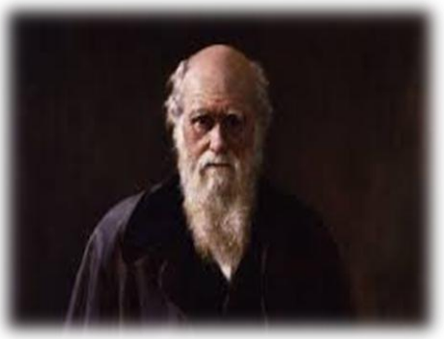
Dhyan Chand

1. To demand more of yourself than you do of others is the first on any ladder of success.
2. It is not my country’s duty to push me ahead. It is my duty to push my country ahead.
3. Nowadays I hear of the princely comforts provided for national teams traveling overseas, and fuss players raise if they happen to miss even a cup of tea! When we used to travel, the name of our country and the game were the only two things that mattered.
4. Success is not only about winning, but it is also about the efforts you put in and the lessons you learn along the way.
5. Belief in yourself, for confidence is the first step towards achievement.
6. Hard work beats talent when talent does not work hard. So, work hard and let your talent shine.
7. Never let the fear of failure hold you back. Instead, let it fuel your determination to succeed.
8. Challenges are what make your interesting. Overcoming them is what makes life meaningful.
9. Set your goals high, and don’t stop till you get there.
10. The only way to do great work is to love what you do. Find your passion nd pursue it relentlessly.

“Pope Francis”

1. Whenever we feel that everyone ignores us, that no one cares what becomes of us, that we are of no importance to anyone, he remains concerned for us.
2. Christ asks you never to be ashamed to tell others, with all due discretion and respect, about your friendship with him. He asks that you dare to tell others how good and beautiful it is that you found him.
3. “We must restore hope to young people, help the old, be open to the future, spread love. Be poor among the poor.We need to include the excluded and preach peace.
4. Love is the greatest power for the transformation of reality because it pulls down the walls of selfishness and fills the ditches that keep us apart.
5. I think this is truly the most wonderful experience we can have: to belong to a people walking, journeying through history together with our Lord, who walks among us! We are not alone; we do not walk alone. We are part of the one flock of Christ that walks together.
6. I am a sinner. This is the most accurate definition.It is not a figure of speech, a literary genre. I am a sinner.
7. The cross does not speak to us about defeat and failure; paradoxically, it speaks to us about a death which is life.
8. There is never a reason to lose hope. Jesus says: ‘I am with you until the end of the world.’
9. Jesus is never far from us sinners. He wants to pour out on us, without limit, all of his mercy.
10. Mercy is the true power that can save humanity and the world from sin and evil.

“ Charles Darwin ”



1. Great is the power of steady misrepresentation; but the history of science shows that fortunately, this power does not long endure.
2. One general law, leading to the advancement of all organic beings, namely, multiply, vary, let the strongest live and the weakest die.
3. If I had my life to live over again, I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once every week.
4. Ignorance more frequently begets confidence than does knowledge: it is those who know little, not those who know much, who so positively assert that this or that problem will never be solved by science.
5. If the misery of the poor be caused not by the laws of nature, but by our institutions, great is our sin.
6. It is not the strongest of the species that survives, not the most intelligent that survives.It is the one that is the most adaptable to change.
7. An American monkey, after getting drunk on brandy, would never touch it again, and thus is much wiser than most men.
8. One general law, leading to the advancement of all organic beings, namely, multiply, vary, let the strongest live and the weakest die.
9. We must, however, acknowledge, as it seems to me, that man with all his noble qualities... still bears in his bodily frame the indelible stamp of his lowly origin.
10. I cannot persuade myself that a beneficent and omnipotent God would have designedly created parasitic wasps with the express intention of their feeding within the living bodies of Caterpillars.

Satyajit Ray

1. The only solutions that are ever worth anything are the solutions that people find themselves.
2. If the theme is simple, you can include a hundred details that create the illusion of actuality better.
3. Last, but not least -- in fact, this is most important -- you need a happy ending. However, if you can create tragic situations and jerk a few tears before the happy ending, it will work much better.
4. I don't understand these national awards, because half of those who sit in judgement over Indian films do not... possess the competence to evaluate a film correctly.
5. When a new character appears in your tale, you must describe his looks and clothes in some detail. If you don’t, your reader may imagine certain things on his own, which will probably not fit whatever you say later on.’ So.
6. When I write an original story, I write about people I know first-hand and situations I'm familiar with. I don't write stories about the nineteenth century.
7. My cameraman and I devised a method, which we started using from my second film, which applies mainly to day scenes shot in the studio, where we used bounced light instead of direct light. We agreed with this thing of four or five shadows following the actors is dreadful.
8. I mix Indian instruments with Western instruments all the time.
9. The conception of background music is changing. You use less and less of it these days.
10. Thankfully, great works of art are way beyond the reach of critics.

Mian Tansen

1. We ought not to be weary of doing little things for the love of God, who regards not the greatness of the work, but the love with which it is performed.
2. Let us think often that our only business in this life is to please God. Perhaps all besides is but folly and vanity.
3. There is not in the world a kind of life more sweet and delightful, than that of a continual conversation with God; those only can comprehend it who practice and experience it.
4. Music, which is an arrangement of sounds, can be a very useful tool for many people if it is structured and played in a certain way, and if it is approached in a certain way.
5. If you get the right equation in terms of the multiple forms of existence and the multiple sounds that the human voice can generate, you can bypass creation and touch the source of creation.
6. Think often on God, by day, by night, in your business and even in your diversions. He is always near you and with you; leave him not alone.
7. That we should establish ourselves in a sense of GOD's Presence, by continually conversing with Him. That it was a shameful thing to quit His conversation, to think of trifles and fooleries.
8. We should fix ourselves firmly in the presence of God by conversing all the time with Him...we should feed our soul with a lofty conception of God and from that derive great joy in being his.
9. We should put life in our faith. We should give ourselves utterly to God in pure abandonment, in temporal and spiritual matters alike, and find contentment in the doing of His will, whether he takes us through sufferings or consolations.
10. One need not cry out very loudly; He is nearer to us than we think.

“ Indhira Gandhi ”

1. There are moments in history when brooding tragedy and its dark shadows can be lightened by recalling great men and their deeds.
2. People tend to forget their duties but remember their rights.
3. You must learn to be still in the midst of activity and to be vibrantly alive in repose.
4. To be liberated, woman must feel free to be herself, not in rivalry to man but in the context of her own capacity and her personality.
5. I have lived a long life, and I am proud that I spent the whole of my life in the service of my people.
6. Opportunities are not offered. They must be wrested and worked for. And this calls for perseverance... and courage.
7. One must beware of ministers who can do nothing without money, and those who want to do everything with money.
8. The power to question is the basis of all human progress.
9. A nation's strength ultimately consists in what it can do on its own and not in what it can borrow from other.
10. Education is a liberating force, and in our age, it is also a democratizing force, cutting across the barriers of caste and class, smoothing out inequalities imposed by birth and other circumstances.

1. Don't call it a comeback, I been here for years. Rockin my peers and puttinsuckas in fear.
2. Laughter? I will turn the laughter of these slaves into wails of torment!
3. It would not be the first time that fame has turned a prince against his Pharaoh.- Or that envy has turned a brother against his brother.
4. I sent you to build a city. Where is it?- It will rise when I have put fear into the stiff-necked Hebrew slaves who build it.
5. He gives them the priests' grain and one day in seven to rest. They call it the day of Moses.
6. I could never love you.- Does that matter? You will be my wife. You will come to me whenever I call you. And I will enjoy that very much. Whether you enjoy it or not is your own affair. But I think you will.
7. Here is your king's scepter and here is your kingdom, with the scorpion, the cobra and the lizard for subjects. Free them, if you will. Leave the Hebrews to me.
8. This is my son. He would have been Pharaoh. He would have ruled the world. Who mourns him now? Not even you. All you can think of is Moses.
9. Better to die in battle with a god, than live in shame.
10. Remember, my sweet, that you must be wife to the next Pharaoh, that you're going to be mine, all mine, like my dog or my horse or my falcon. Only I will love you more, and trust you less.

“ Savitribai Phule ”

1. Women's rights are not a privilege but a fundamental aspect of human rights.
2. Laziness is a symptom of poverty. It is the enemy of knowledge, wealth, and honour and the lazy person gets none of it.
3. The lack of learning is nothing but gross bestiality. It is through the acquisition of knowledge that (he) loses his lower status and achieves the higher one.
4. A woman without education is like a banyan tree without roots or leaves; she cannot provide for her children and stay alive herself.
5. We shall overcome and success will be ours in the future. The future belongs to us.
6. If you have no knowledge, have no education, And you yearn not for the same, you possess intellect but work not on the same, How then can you be called a human being?
7. If you educate a man, you educate an individual. But if you educate a woman, you educate an entire family and, eventually, a nation.
8. You have started the benevolent and welfare work for the poor and the needy. I also want to carry my share of the responsibility. I assure you I will always help you. I wish the godly work will be helped by more people.
9. Women are not born to be conquered; they are born to be respected.
10. If you want to learn how to think, read books. If you want to learn how to act, watch acting.

“Dr Samuel Johnson”

1. There are minds so impatient of inferiority that their gratitude is a species of revenge, and they return benefits, not because recompense is a pleasure, but because obligation is a pain.
2. Curiosity is one of the permanent and certain characteristics of a vigorous intellect.
3. The use of travelling is to regulate imagination by reality, and instead of thinking how things may be, to see them as they are.
4. It is better to suffer wrong than to do it, and happier to be sometimes cheated than not to trust.
5. No estimate is more in danger of erroneous calculations than those by which a man computes the force of his own genius.
6. To be happy at home is the ultimate result of all ambition, the end to which every enterprise and labour tends, and of which every desire prompts the prosecution.

Yasser Arafat

1. Peace for us means the destruction of Israel. We are preparing for an all-out war, a war which will last for generations.
2. We will not bend or fail until the blood of every last Jew from the youngest child to the oldest.
3. As long as we have decided to coexist in peace, we must do so on a firm basis that will withstand time and for generations.
4. Confidence alone does not make peace, but acknowledging rights and confidence do. Failure to recognize these rights creates a sense of injustice; it keeps the embers burning under the ashes.
5. I would like to congratulate my partners in peace - Mr. Yitzhak Rabin, the Prime Minister of Israel, and Mr. Shimon Peres, the Israeli Foreign Minister - on being awarded the Nobel Peace Prize.
6. I call on Russia and the United States of America, the cosponsors of the peace conference, to help the peace process take bigger steps by contributing to the process and helping to overcome all obstacles.
7. I'm a man of history. My vision is guiding me, my clear vision. It is not by chance that the currents of peace are increasing daily inside Israel.
8. I come bearing an olive branch in one hand, and the freedom fighter's gun in the other. Do not let the olive branch fall from my hand.
9. All religious wars are about people arguing over who has the biggest invisible friend.
10. Whoever stands by a just cause cannot possibly be called a terrorist.

Elizabeth I of Great

1. I know I have the body of a weak and feeble woman, but I have the heart and stomach of a king, and of a king of England too.
2. I do not want a husband who honours me as a queen, if he does not love me as a woman.
3. Do not tell secrets to those whose faith and silence you have not already tested.
4. There is one thing higher than Royalty: and that is religion, which causes us to leave the world, and seek God.
5. I have the heart of a man, not a woman, and I am not afraid of anything.
6. Though the sex to which I belong is considered weak you will nevertheless find me a rock that bends to no wind.
7. Grief never ends, but it changes. It is a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness nor a lack of faith: it is the price of love.
8. Life is for living and working at. If you find anything or anybody a bore, the fault is in yourself.
9. Be always faithful to me, as I always desire to keep you in peace; and if there have been wiser kings, none has ever loved you more than I have.
10. Words are leaves, the substance consists of deeds, which are the true fruits of a good tree.

Garfield Sobers

1. T20 is good entertainment. It is a game you need. People go to watch it. You have to be careful how far you let it go.
2. My whole obligation was to West Indies cricket. As I have always said, I have never made a run for me. Records meant nothing. The team was important.
3. If I am talking to a youngster, I coach him what I feel is best for him to bowl, how to hold the ball, how to bowl certain things, and how to bowl to certain batsmen, how to position himself. I never talk to them about the rules.
4. Until we can get people who are willing to play for West Indies in the right way, I think that we're going to be struggling for a long time.
5. Every bowler dreams of bowling like me, and every batsman aspires to hit like me.
6. A true sportsman values the team’s victory over personal milestones.
7. Great cricketers are remembered for their character as much as their skills.
8. Records must not be the focus and that's the most important thing. It mustn't come at the cost of the team.
9. It's good to draw spectators to the grounds, but I don't think Twenty20 will help you produce good Test cricketers.
10. I learned to bat and bowl on different pitches and knew when to go hard and when to back off. It was just something I learned.

“ Rajaraja Chola ”

1. The world is full of beauty when the heart is full of love.
2. A true friend is the one who stands by you in times of happiness and sorrow.
3. Honor is a precious jewel that shines bright even in the darkest of times.
4. The path of righteousness may be difficult, but it is always worth walking.
5. There is no greater weapon than knowledge, for it can conquer even the most powerful of foes.
6. The true mark of a leader is not in their power, but in their ability to inspire and unite others.
7. The smallest acts of kindness can create ripples that touch the lives of many.
8. The past may shape us, but it is our choices in the present that define who we are.
9. The road to greatness is paved with hardships, but those who persevere will achieve their dreams.
10. In times of darkness, it is important to hold onto hope, for it is the light that guides us through the shadows.

“Suleiman the Magnificent”

1. The people think of wealth and power as the greatest fate, But in this world, a spell of health is the best state. What men call sovereignty is worldly strife and constant war; Worship of God is the highest throne, the happiest of all estates.
2. What men call sovereignty is a worldly strife and constant war; Worship of God is the highest throne, the happiest of all estates.
3. I could send you our finest cooks, tailors, animal keepers and advisers, but for soldiers, we have none.
4. I am Suleiman the Magnificent. I AM the Ottoman Empire.
5. The generosity of the Ottoman Empire is legendary. Have some coin.
6. My soldiers rally under the crescent banner. We march!
7. Olives from the Mediterranean, dates from Mesopotamia. All for you to sample.
8. We are a long way from the Ottoman Empire, my friend, and I have not the troops to spare.
9. I'm sure that will fetch a fine price at the bazaar, my friend.
10. There is little to gain from further conflict

“Michael Jackson”

1. People think they know me, but they don't. Not really. Actually, I am one of the loneliest people on this earth. I cry sometimes, because it hurts. It does. To be honest, I guess you could say that it hurts to be me.
2. I made a terrible mistake. I got caught up in the excitement of the moment. I would never intentionally endanger the lives of my children.
3. The meaning of life is contained in every single expression of life. It is present in the infinity of forms and phenomena that exist in all of creation.
4. If you enter this world knowing you are loved and you leave this world knowing the same, then everything that happens in between can be dealt with.
5. To live is to be musical, starting with the blood dancing in your veins. Everything living has a rhythm. Do you feel your music?
6. I believe in wishes and in a person's ability to make a wish come true. Whenever I saw a sunset, I would quietly make my secret wish right before the sun tucked under the western horizon and disappeared. It would seem as if the sun had taken my wish with it.
7. But I will never stop helping and loving people the way Jesus said to.
8. The greatest education in the world is watching the masters at work.
9. I'm a black American, I am proud of my race. I am proud of who I am. I have a lot of pride and dignity.
10. My mother's wonderful. To me she's perfection.

“Srinivasa RAMANUJAM”

1. An equation for me has no meaning, unless it expresses a thought of God.
2. I beg to introduce myself to you as a clerk in the Accounts Department of the Port Trust Office at Madras on a salary of only £20 per annum. I am now about 23 years of age. … After leaving school I have been employing the spare time at my disposal to work at Mathematics.
3. To preserve my brains, I want food and this is now my first consideration. Any sympathetic letter from you will be helpful to me here to get a scholarship.
4. While asleep, I had an unusual experience. There was a red screen formed by flowing blood, as it were. I was observing it. Suddenly a hand began to write on the screen. I became all attention. That hand wrote a number of elliptic integrals. They stuck to my mind. As soon as I woke up, I committed them to writing.
5. I have not trodden through a conventional university course, but I am striking out a new path for myself.
6. No, it is a very interesting number, it is the smallest number expressible as a sum of two cubes in two different ways.
7. The beauty of mathematics lies in its simplicity and complexity at the same time.
8. Numbers are like friends; they reveal their secrets to those who are willing to listen.
9. You become more aware of math’s limitless potential as you learn more about it.
10. Infinity is not just a concept; it offers a window into the universe’s limitless possibilities.

“Moctezuma II”

1. Today we are now thrown into contact all the time with people whose assumptions, perspectives, and backgrounds are different from our own. The modern world is not two brothers feuding for control of the Ottoman Empire. It is Cortés and Montezuma struggling to understanding each other through multiple layers of translators.
2. In the end, it is not the conquest of others that brings true fulfilment, but the conquest of oneself.
3. Your ruler, the lord of men implores you. We are not equal to the Spaniards. Abandon the battle.

7. The struggle for democracy and human rights in Burma is a struggle for life and dignity. It is a struggle that encompasses our political, social and economic aspirations.
8. It is not power that corrupts but fear. Fear of losing power corrupts those who wield it and fear of the scourge of power corrupts those who are subject to it.
9. If ideas and beliefs are to be denied validity outside the geographical and cultural bounds of their origin, Buddhism would be confined to north India, Christianity to a narrow tract in the Middle East and Islam to Arabia.
10. Peace as a goal is an ideal which will not be contested by any government or nation, not even the most belligerent.

“Colin Luther Powell”

1. You can’t make someone else’s choices. You shouldn’t let someone else make yours.
2. Avoid having your ego so close to your position that when your position falls, your ego goes with it.
3. Diplomacy is listening to what the other guy needs. Preserving your own position, but listening to the other guy. You have to develop relationships with other people so when the tough times come, you can work together.
4. Leadership is solving problems. The day soldiers stop bringing you their problems is the day you have stopped leading them. They have either lost confidence that you can help or concluded you do not care. Either case is a failure of leadership.
5. Great leaders are almost always great simplifiers, who can cut through argument, debate and doubt, to offer a solution everybody can understand.
6. If you are going to achieve excellence in big things,you develop the habit in little matters.
7. There is no end to the good you can do if you don’t care who gets the credit.

3. I feel a deep emotion and pride for the honor of having been awarded the Nobel Peace Prize for 1992.
4. When you are convinced, your cause is just, you fight for it.
5. I am like a drop of water on a rock. After drip, drip, dripping in the same place, I begin to leave a mark, and I leave my mark in many people's hearts.
6. We are not myths of the past, ruins in the jungle, or zoos. We are people and we want to be respected, not to be victims of intolerance and racism.
7. The people are the only ones capable of transforming society.
8. The human being is to be respected and defended, not protected like a bird or a river.
9. There is not one world for man and one for animals, they are part of the same one and lead parallel lives.
10. The Mayas, our grandparents, always said; every human being occupies a small piece of time. Time itself is much longer, and because of this they always said that we must care for this earth while we are on it because it will be part of our children and the children of our grandchildren. They know that life is short, that it can end so soon, and that if one gets lost on the way, others will come to take their place.

“Sir Edmond Hillary”

1. Life’s a bit like mountaineering – never look down.
2. Human life is far more important than just getting to the top of a mountain.
3. I was scared many times on Everest, but this is all part of the challenge. When I fell down a crevasse, it was pretty scary.
4. I think it all comes down to motivation. If you really want to do something, you will work hard for it
5. Because my name appears in history books, most children think I am dead.
6. Nobody climbs mountains for scientific reasons. Science is used to raise money for the expeditions, but you really climb for the hell of it.
7. As a youngster, I was a great dreamer, reading many books of adventure and walking lonely miles with my head in the clouds.
8. You don’t have to be a hero to accomplish great things—to compete. You can just be an ordinary chap, sufficiently motivated to reach challenging goals.
9. While on top of Everest, I looked across the valley towards the great peak Makalu and mentally worked out a route about how it could be climbed. It showed me that even though I was standing on top of the world, it wasn’t the end of everything. I was still looking beyond to other interesting challenges.
10. If you have plenty – more than enough – and someone else has nothing, then you should do something about it.

“Adolfo Pérez Esquivel”

1. We must apply our humble efforts to the construction of a more just and humane world. And I want to declare emphatically: Such a world is possible. To create this new society, we must present outstretched and friendly hands, without hatred and rancor, even as we show great determination and never waver in the defense of truth and justice. Because we know that we cannot sow seeds with clenched fists. To sow we must open our hands.
2. Don't stand back with your arms folded step forward... There is hope and light to resist injustice and promote peace without violence.
3. For me, it is essential to have the inner peace and serenity of prayer in order to listen to the silence of God, which speaks to us, in our personal life and the history of our times, of the power of love.
4. I do not believe that a dream should necessarily be taken for reality, or reality for madness.
5. Peace is not just the end of war; it is the culture of justice and solidarity.
6. The struggle for peace is intertwined with the struggle for justice.
7. We must resist the temptation to use violence as a means to achieve justice.
8. The true measure of a society is how it treats its most vulnerable members.
9. We must prioritize the needs of the poor and marginalized in our pursuit of peace.
10. We cannot achieve peace without first acknowledging and addressing the root causes of conflict.

Akira Kurosawa

1. Man is a genius when he dreams. Dream what you are capable of. The harder you dream it, the sooner it will come true.
2. If you look at everything straight on, there is nothing to be afraid of.
3. There is nothing that says more about its creator than the work itself.
4. I am not a special person; I am not especially strong; I am not especially gifted. I simply do not like to show my weakness, and I hate to lose, so I am a person who tries hard. That's all there is to me.
5. Man is born crying; when he's cried enough, he dies!
6. What we think of as the past is, rather, a romantic concept held by those too young to have any grasp on the meaning of age.
7. To be an artist means never to avert one's eyes.
8. Ignorance is a kind of insanity in the human animal.
9. In other words, take “myself,” subtract “movies” and the result is “zero.

2. The more difficult the victory, the greater the happiness in winning.
3. Success is no accident. It is hard work, perseverance, learning, studying, sacrifice and most of all, love of what you are doing or learning to do.
4. I don't believe there is such a thing as a 'born' soccer player. Perhaps you are born with certain skills and talents, but quite frankly it seems impossible to me that one is actually born to be an ace soccer player.
5. If you are first, you are first. If you are second, you are nothing.
6. I always had a philosophy which I got from my father. He used to say, 'Listen. God gave to you the gift to play football. This is your gift from God. If you take care of your health, if you are in good shape all the time, with your gift from God no one will stop you, but you must be prepared.'
7. Brazil eats, sleeps and drinks football. It lives football
8. I represent Brazil all over the world. Wherever I go I have to do my best, to not disappoint the Brazilian people. And that I've done.
9. Great teams are not made up of many well-rounded players. Great teams are made up of a variety of players, each having their own strengths.
10. I have to trust something that gives me power; I have to believe in something, but in my career, I have a lot of moments I cannot explain with God.

“ Thiruvalluvar ”

1. If the married life possesses love and virtue, these will be both its duty and reward.
2. There is a limit for everything. You can’t just load tons and tons of peacock feathers in a cart considering its light weight. If you do, it will damage the axle of the cart.
3. Uttering foul words, while there are the sweetest of words, is like going for the unripe fruits while there are a lot of ripe ones.
4. Even more than the time when she gave birth, a mother feels her greatest joy when she hears others refer to her son as a wise learned one.
5. To reprove a harm-doer, put him to shame by doing a good deed in return.
6. Nothing is impossible for those who act after wise counsel and careful thought.
7. The lotus' stem is as long as the depth of water, so men's height is just as great as their inner strength.
8. Better the arrow that missed the lion than the one that killed a rabbit.
9. Although an act of help done timely, might be small in nature, it is truly larger than the world itself.
10. Foolish people inflict pain upon them self which is worse than what an enemy can bring upon.

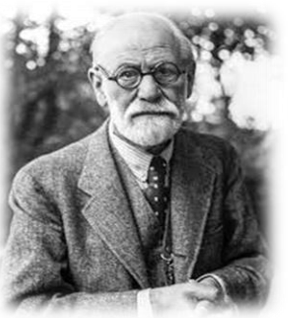
Sigmund Freud



1. Out of your vulnerabilities will come your strength.
2. The voice of the intellect is a soft one, but it does not rest until it has gained a hearing. Ultimately, after endless rebuffs, it succeeds. This is one of the few points in which one may be optimistic about the future of mankind.
3. People do not really want freedom, because freedom involves responsibility and most people are frightened of responsibility.
4. We are what we are because we have been what we have been, and what is needed for solving the problems of human life and motives is not moral estimates but more knowledge.
5. Unexpressed emotions will never die. They are buried alive and will come forth later in uglier ways.
6. One day, in retrospect, the years of struggle will strike you as the most beautiful.
7. In the small matters trust the mind, in the large ones the heart.
8. We choose not randomly each other. We meet only those who already exists in our subconscious.
9. Human beings are funny. They long to be with the person they love but refuse to admit openly. Some are afraid to show even the slightest sign of affection because of fear. Fear that their feelings may not be recognized, or even worst, returned. But one thing about human beings puzzles me the most is their conscious effort to be connected with the object of their affection even if it kills them slowly within.
10. Maturity is the ability to postpone gratification.

“Asoka the Great”

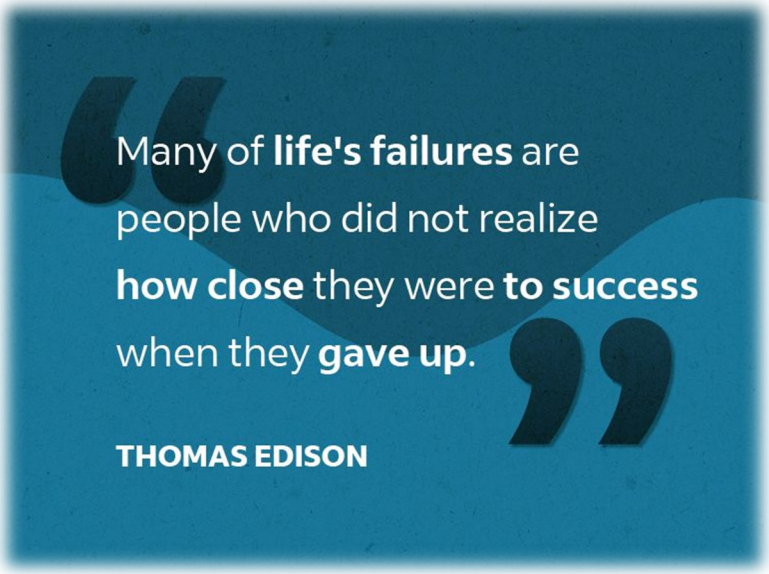
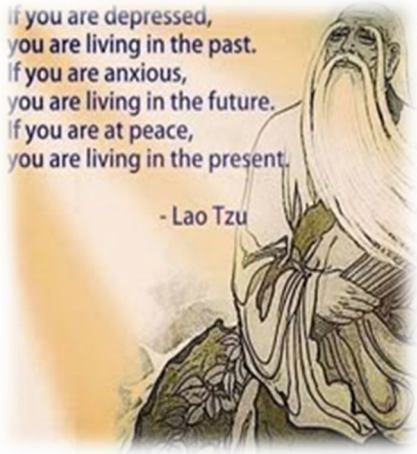
RICK CONLOW



Many of life's failures are people who did not realize how close they were to success when they gave up.
THOMAS EDISON



If you are depressed,
you are living in the past.
If you are anxious,
you are living in the future.
If you are at peace,
you are living in the present.
